

ACHTUNG!

The Texas General Land Office Archives contains over 4,000 documents that may help you locate your German ancestors!

- ★ See the original Kartes des Staates—a map produced by the Adelsverein in Germany to encourage emigration to Texas.
- ★ Research German immigration contracts of the Adelsverein.
- ★ Determine where Texas' German immigrants came from and where they settled.
- ★ View land grant maps that may include your ancestor's name!

These resources belong to the people of Texas. Anyone can research them FREE OF CHARGE.

Can't Make it to Austin?

Order a Genealogical Name Search!

1. Visit the History and Archives section of www.glo.texas.gov and print a Genealogy Name Search Request Form OR simply provide us with the names of persons to be researched, any background information you have, including where the person may have settled or when the person may have arrived, and any other helpful biographical information.
2. Send a check or money order payable to the "Texas General Land Office" for $20 per name requested (up to four names per request)
3. Mail to: Texas General Land Office, Archives and Records, 1700 North Congress Avenue, Austin, Texas 78701-1495

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO SCHEDULE A TOUR

800.998.4GLO
512.463.5277

Research Room Hours
7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Monday to Friday

SAVE TEXAS ★ ★ ★
★ ★ ★ GENERAL HISTORY!
LAND OFFICE
PRESERVATION AND EDUCATION PROGRAM

The Texas General Land Office Archives houses 35 million documents—some dating back to Spanish rule. Many of these documents are under siege by the forces of age and use. Do your part to help preserve them for future generations. Together we can Save Texas History!

savetexashistory.org

Scan code with a QR reader on your smart-phone to learn more about our genealogical resources.

Find us on facebook

Texas General Land Office ★ Jerry Patterson, Commissioner